Elena Desserich Book Published

Last Update: 12/11 12:02 am

Elena Desserich inspired us all as she courageously battled terminal brain cancer.

Elena is gone, but her story lives on.

"Notes Left Behind" is a journal written by her parents in the last 135 days of Elena's life.

It is not a story of grief or defeat, but the power of love and the perseverance of the human spirit.

The six-year-old girl hid loving notes for her family, knowing they wouldn't find them until after she died.

Now this uplifting book is available at bookstores, benefiting "The Cure Starts Now" Foundation.
