Sycamore fashion show will benefit cancer research

Contributed By Shauna Steigerwald | The Enquirer | ShareThis

Sycamore High School, 7400 Cornell Road in Montgomery, will host a fashion show, "Fashion for the Cure," at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 17.

Students and staff members will model student-designed fashions and formal wear from local retailers.

After the show, Brooke and Keith Desserich will discuss and sign copies of "Notes Left Behind," the best-selling story of their daughter's brain cancer battle.

Other highlights of the event include a raffle and auction for items such as Vera Wang house wares, a BCBG scarf and glasses, Coach purses, an electric guitar signed by Peter Frampton, a Carson Palmer jersey, autographed sports memorabilia and a Double Tree Hotel getaway.

Tickets are $10 and can be purchased by contacting Val Schwartz, event organizer, at 513-703-5868 or at the door. A ticket with an event T-shirts can be ordered for $15, and VIP tickets, which include VIP seating, an autographed book and an event T-shirt, can be ordered for $50.

Proceeds will benefit The Cure Starts Now Foundation, a local pediatric brain cancer research organization.
