

Social DATEBOOK

1. More than 250 supporters of The Wellness Community of Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky (TWC) dined at The National Exemplar in the Mariemont Inn as part of the restaurant's 16th annual benefit dinner. Since hosting the first event in 1994, The National Exemplar has donated approximately $41,500 to TWC. Bill & Carol Mullens and Judy & Roger Short.

2. The McGing Irish Dancers performed at SPCA Cincinnati's annual fundraiser "Fur Ball 2009." The gala also included dinner, live & silent auctions and a jewelry raffle.

3. Dr. David LeBourveau, Cindy Judd and "Fur Ball" Committee Chair and SPCA Cincinnati Trustee Judy Recker with a shelter dog at the fundraiser. "Fur Ball" photos courtesy of Keith Klenowski.

4. The Cure Starts Now (CSN) 2nd annual "Once in a Lifetime" gala and auction earned more than $150,000 for pediatric brain cancer research. Learn about the foundation at www.thecurestartsnow.org. Amanda Orlando and CSN Co-Director Brooke Desserich.

5. David Love, Patti & Bootsy Collins, The Cure Starts Now's Co-Director Keith Desserich and WCPO's Brendan Keefe at the "Once in a Lifetime" fundraiser.

6. The Junior Woman's Club (JWC) of Wyoming's 34th annual charity auction raised nearly $34,000 for the American Heart Association and other JWC Foundation charities. Kelly Flood, Kristin Svendsen and Kate Rummer.

7. Chad Fitzsimmons, Susie Guggenheim and Michael Flood at the Junior Woman's Club of Wyoming's charity auction.

8. The Aubrey Rose Foundation (ARF) raised $100,000 at the 6th annual the "American Girl Fashion Show." More than 500 local girls walked the runway in support of ARF's mission to assist families caring for children with life-threatening illnesses. Maygan Hinkle and Maddi O'Connell. Photo courtesy of Carrie Furry with RHEMA Photography.

