

Thursday, June 17, some of the girls in the Hillwood neighborhood decided to Make a Stand and help put the squeeze on pediatric brain cancer. The girls set up a lemonade stand in memory of Madeline Adams, daughter of Elizabeth and Pat Adams, to raise money for The Cure Starts Now Foundation. Lilly Schroll, along with her mom Gina and grandmother Shea, Catherine Price and her mom Cindy, Phelps and Mary Todd Romanowski with their mom Margaret Lois, Bentley Moore and her mom Drennan, and Aimee Conn made posters, passed out 200 flyers in the neighborhood, and sent emails to advertise for the event. The girls worked hard and were very excited about raising over $450 dollars for such an important cause.
Pictured: Mary Todd Romanowski, Lilly Schroll, Catherine Price and Aimee Conn (not pictured: Phelps Romanowski and Bentley Moore).

Photo soecial to The Independent