Graeter's will unveil a new ice cream flavor Saturday - Elena's Blueberry Pie - the sale of which will benefit The Cure Starts Now Foundation, a nonprofit that aids pediatric brain cancer research.

It was founded by Brooke and Keith Desserich of Wyoming, whose 6-year-old daughter Elena died of a brainstem tumor last August.

Mark Groteke of Wyoming and experts at Graeter's created Elena's Blueberry Pie ice cream. Groteke made a bid on the honor of developing the new flavor - a blend of vanilla ice cream, blueberries and pie crust - at The Cure Starts Now Foundation's Once in a Lifetime Gala held in March.

Elena's Blueberry Pie will be available by the scoop at all Graeter's locations for one month.
