The family of Elena Desserich is hoping to keep her memory alive as they hold a "Cure Starts Now" party this weekend.

Elena was one of the children 9News talked a lot about during our coverage of the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

The Wyoming six-year-old had "diffuse brain stem glioma" and passed away just over a week ago.

This Saturday the Desserich family have organized a "Swim/ Dive-a-thon."

Their goal -- raise money to find a cure for the rare cancer.

The event will run from 9 a.m. until noon at the Wyoming Family Aquatic Center. 9 a-m saturday at the wyoming family aquatic center.
